

Redemption Through Judgment

Exodus 7:1-13

I. The prophecy of coming judgment

As the LORD's ambassador, Moses would speak God's _____ and perform all of his _____.

The _____ of the judgments was for all to know that God is the LORD.

The price for sin was paid on the Lord Jesus as he _____ and died on the cross. Through Him, we have redemption.

II. God had chosen Moses and Aaron

Because Pharaoh did not _____ the LORD, he desired proof through a miracle.

God's staff _____ Egypt's staffs by swallowing them.

The Pharisees were not wowed by God's power but instead _____ in their unbelief.

When we tell people about the good news of Jesus Christ, many will simply not _____.

Application

- There is no way to be spared from coming judgment except being bound to Jesus Christ through faith.
- As a believer in Jesus Christ, there is no reason to fear of what is to come.
- Judgment is necessary for our full redemption.
