

On the Brink of Redemption

Exodus 6:9-30

I. Moses doubted himself

The Hebrew people in Egypt had lost all _____ for redemption because of their suffering.

Moses had concluded that he was _____ to accomplish this task.

We recognize that this direct command of God to Moses was _____.

II. God had chosen Moses and Aaron

The family of _____ were chosen to be priests and mediators between God and Israel.

Phinehas would stand up for the _____ of God when nobody else would.

Moses was able to sympathize with the peoples' _____ and was tempted, yet he sinned.

Application

What might be our excuses and doubts for not desiring to go as Christ has commanded?

We have been saved from being helpless and fearful slaves to be an army for the Kingdom of God.
